This session is also available on December 19, 2023. To register, please click here.

This has been the most active legislative year on the labor and employment front since before the COVID-19 pandemic. Dozens of bills have made their way through the legislative process – including increases to paid sick leave requirements, new leave entitlements, workplace violence prevention requirements, rehire obligations for displaced workers, and many more.

Fisher Phillips invites you to join us for an informative half-day covering important California legislative and legal updates that affect employers in 2024 and beyond. Our attorneys will analyze legislation, provide immigration and benefits updates, and discuss case law updates.

This seminar is appropriate for business owners, in-house counsel, HR professionals, and anyone who handles employee complaints, manages employees, or makes decisions impacting the workplace.

New legislation to be covered includes:

- SB 616 – Paid Sick Days – Increases paid sick days and increases accrual caps.
- SB 848 – Leave for Reproductive Loss – Allows employees to take 5 days of leave for a “reproductive loss event”.
