Nicole Kamm and Todd Scherwin have been named to the Los Angeles Business Journal's 2023 Leaders of Influence: Thriving in Their 40s. Honorees are accomplished business professionals in their forties who have made significant contributions to the local business and legal communities.

Nicole, a partner in Fisher Phillips' Woodland Hills office, was highlighted for her record of successfully handling complex cases in a variety of industries, including healthcare, technology, manufacturing, retail, hospitality, construction, transportation, and professional services. She was also profiled for her continued efforts to provide strategic counsel and management training on employment issues that arise in the workplace.

Todd, Regional Managing Partner of the firm's Los Angeles and Woodland Hills offices and co-founder of the firm's Sports industry team, was profiled as a go-to resource for Los Angeles-area business clients facing employment issues and lawsuits. His impeccable track record of victories for employers across growing industries in California and his experience sitting at the counsel table before the U.S. Supreme Court were also highlighted.
