Overview

Piper Brockley received her J.D. from Chapman University, Fowler School of Law. During law school, Piper was a three-year, full-tuition merit scholarship recipient, a member of Moot Court, the Golden Gavel Moot Competition Champion, and an Academic Fellow for Torts I, Torts II, Evidence, and Professional Responsibility. She earned CALI Excellence for the Future Awards (Highest Class Grade) in Contracts, Professional Responsibility, Constitutional Law, Criminal Procedure, and Antitrust. Prior to working at Fisher Phillips, Piper was a law clerk for a sports media company and a legal research assistant for Chapman Dean Matt Parlow.

Piper graduated as a four-year Division I student-athlete from the University of Southern California. While at USC, she received a Bachelor's in Human Biology with PAC-12 All-Academic Honors. In addition to college athletics, Piper was a USA Swimming Olympic Trials qualifier, biology lab assistant, finalist in the USC Undergraduate Writing Competition, and loyal Trojan Football Fan.
