

ARE BIG CHANGES AHEAD? WHAT FEDERAL PRIVACY LEGISLATION MEANS FOR EMPLOYERS (IF IT PASSES!)

Event

Apr 22, 2024

9:00 am - 10:00 am PDT

A bipartisan group of federal lawmakers just unveiled a sweeping proposal to pass the nation's first data privacy law and hand a significant amount of power to consumers. This proposal would be a massive change in the way that businesses treat customer data. While it would create a consistent framework across the country and eliminate the confusing patchwork of state laws that businesses have to navigate, it would also expose more businesses to potential litigation and increase compliance obligations for tens of thousands of organizations. While the prospect of a federal privacy law might seem daunting, Fisher Phillips is here to help.

Join partners Risa Boerner, Usama Kahf, and Ben Ebbink for a deep dive into the proposed law. This webinar will explore all facets of the law and how it will interact with extant state privacy laws, including possible ramifications for employers.
