Overview

Fawn Bekam defends employers against a variety of workplace claims, primarily wage and hour class and representative litigation, as well as discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and wrongful termination claims.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Fawn was an associate at a boutique litigation law firm focused on wage and hour class action litigation in Orange County.

During law school, Fawn was an extern to Judge James J. Di Cesare of the Orange County Superior Court. She also participated in the Immigrant Rights Clinic where she worked to secure bond for immigration detainees, provided civil rights presentations to community members and organizers, and advanced awareness of the immigration consequences of suspected criminal activity.
