

Fisher Phillips Welcomes Two Employment Litigators in Los Angeles

News

12.04.23

Fisher Phillips, an international labor and employment law firm representing employers, is pleased to announce that Andreas Moghimi and Lilit Vardanian have joined the firm as associates in the Los Angeles office.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Andreas was a labor and employment associate at a national law firm where he represented employers in a variety of labor and employment matters involving wage and hour law, PAGA, wrongful termination, discrimination, retaliation, and misclassification. At Fisher Phillips, Andreas will continue to litigate on behalf of employers and will also provide companies with counseling and advice on all aspects of their employment relationships. Andreas earned his J.D. from Pepperdine Caruso School of Law and his B.A. from The Ohio State University.

Lilit joins Fisher Phillips from a regional litigation firm and further expands the firm's employment litigation team in Los Angeles. She has experience managing the lifecycle of litigation in state, federal, and appellate courts and before administrative agencies. In addition to her litigation practice, Lilit will provide advice and counsel to clients in matters involving personnel decisions, interoffice issues, employee handbooks, and workplace policies. Lilit earned her J.D. from Pepperdine University School of Law and her B.A. from the University of California, San Diego.
