Fisher Phillips, an international labor and employment law firm representing employers, is pleased to announce that Adam Grable has joined the firm as Of Counsel in the Irvine office. He joins shortly after the arrival of Ladan Shelechi as the office continues to expand its employment litigation services.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Adam served as Associate General Counsel at the Los Angeles Unified School District, where he managed all aspects of litigation for the Labor & Employment Services team, including defending against FEHA, Title VII, ADA, ADEA, and Labor Code Section 1102.5 whistleblower lawsuits. At Fisher Phillips, he will complement the firm's growing employment litigation team by guiding clients in complex labor and employment disputes while also providing counseling on workplace policies and personnel matters to ensure compliance with local, state, and federal laws.

Adam earned his J.D. from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law, where he graduated at the top of his class and earned the Witkin Award for Academic Excellence for Highest Grade in Labor Law. He earned his B.A. from the University of California at Santa Barbara.
