Fisher Phillips is pleased to announce its new “California Insider” service for employers with operations in California. State legislation and regulations move at an incredibly fast pace in California. To stay ahead of the curve when it comes to compliance (and to give you a leg up on the competition) you need to know what is coming next. Gone are the days when it is sufficient to merely wait until December for the flood of legal alerts about what you need to be ready for the start of the year.

Fisher Phillips is here to help you look around corners to see what is coming next – while there is still an opportunity to amplify your voice and affect public policy while it is still being developed.

Sacramento-based Partner Ben Ebbink (our “California Insider”) has 15 years of experience working for the state legislature on labor and employment policy) will keep you up to speed with everything you need to know. Each month, you will receive a list of key labor and employment bills pending in California, an exclusive “insider” newsletter with policy analysis and behind-the-scenes legislative intelligence you won’t find anywhere else, and a monthly hour-long webinar to take a deeper dive on all of the above.

We are so confident this information will be invaluable to you that we are offering a free three month trial period that runs from May 1 through July 31. After that, we hope that you continue to find this information valuable and will consider subscribing to receive this unique content in the future. But there is no obligation. You won’t be asked to provide any payment information now. We are confident that you will find the California Insider crucial to your compliance efforts and
