Overview

Stephanie Prewitt is of counsel in the firm's Louisville office and Executive Director of the firm's consulting firm, Foundations HR Consulting. She has partnered with Human Resources executives to implement systems and processes that are not only legally sound, but also further the principles of lean business operations. Much of her experience has been with Toyota Motor Engineering & Manufacturing North America, Inc. where she served as Assistant General Counsel.

For nearly 20 years, Stephanie has counseled Human Resource Departments on labor and employment matters and has focused on disability and medical management issues. Her experience at Toyota also included legal oversight of numerous plant start-ups, systemic investigations, voluntary termination programs, and extensive training and development programs.
