MASTERING THE ART OF LETTING GO: RISK MITIGATION TACTICS FOR EMPLOYEE TERMINATIONS

Event

Jul 18, 2024

10:00 am - 11:00 am PDT

The realities of running a business mean that occasionally, an employee will be terminated. How you conduct the termination process is critical to your legal exposure and bottom line. This will cover the basics for conducting an employee's termination including:

- Legal considerations for progressive discipline and termination
- Developing clear policies and procedures for disciplinary and terminable offenses
- Effective documentation leading up to the termination
- Respectful and effective communication practices for the termination process
- Post-termination strategies to protect your company's reputation and minimize potential fallout from a contentious termination

The firm will submit this program for HRCI and SHRM credit.
