

Alen Samuel Recognized as “One to Watch” by Dallas Association of Young Lawyers

News

9.12.24

Alen Samuel was recently recognized by the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers (DAYL) in its annual list of “Ones to Watch.” Alen’s profile highlights her continued efforts in defending her clients in a wide range of workplace litigation matters while providing practical and strategic employment law advice to the Texas business community and beyond. She is also recognized for her role as member of the DAYL Lawyers Promoting Diversity Committee, secretary for the Dallas Asian American Bar Association (DAABA), and board member for The Podium, an organization amplifying Asian American female attorneys in DFW.

To read the article visit Dallas Association of Young Lawyers.

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Alen A. Samuel

Associate

214.220.8318

Email

Related Offices

