This year has brought significant legal developments impacting the workplace. From the FTC's attempt to regulate non-compete agreements to the EEOC's roll out of the Pregnant Worker Fairness Act regulations, 2024 proved to be a busy year for in-house lawyers, HR professionals and the courts alike. Now, with a new administration on the horizon, 2025 promises even more transformative shifts in labor and employment law. It's time to do a pulse check!

Join us for an insightful afternoon focused on updates and practical strategies designed to help you guide your organization through upcoming changes. We'll share our predictions and resources to help you navigate changes while maintaining compliance and fostering a positive company culture.
