

A Dealership Crash Course in Minimum Wage and Overtime Exemptions

Event

11.19.24

1:00 PM — 2:00 PM EDT

Minimum wage and overtime exemptions are top of mind for dealerships since the Department of Labor issued a final rule revising the salary threshold for executive, administrative, professional (EAP) and highly compensated employees.

Join Fisher Phillips attorneys, Matthew Simpson and Chris Hoffman, to learn how this final rule could impact your dealership, along with the other common overtime exemptions that typically apply at a dealership, such as the salesmen, partsmen, and mechanics exemption. This webinar will include a summary of dealership overtime exemptions, common mistakes dealerships make while administering those exemptions, and how to prevent those mistakes moving forward.

This webinar is hosted by National Automotive Dealers Association (NADA).

As this event is sponsored by Fisher Phillips and NADA, the RSVP list and information provided at registration will be shared among all sponsors. By registering for this event, you understand you may be contacted by both sponsors.

If you have any questions, please contact Monica Kharmatsky.
