THE LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT IMPLICATIONS IN MEXICO OF TRUMP'S PROPOSED TARIFFS

Event

Jan 9, 2025

2:00 pm - 3:00 pm EST

There is no doubt the incoming administration will bring myriad changes to the labor and employment landscape in the U.S. but what will the international ripple effects of those changes be? The proposed tariffs that President-elect Trump plans to enact will have implications on existing multilateral agreements and may very well change the way companies do business in and with Mexico. Join partners Germán de la Garza De Vecchi and William D. Wright as they discuss the implications for employers and what companies should be thinking about now as we head towards Inauguration Day.
