OVERVIEW

Jake Bass helps businesses navigate sensitive workplace disputes, employee defections, reputational challenges, and contentious litigation. He routinely advises companies on intellectual property matters, and he has a robust understanding of unfair competition and defamation law. His clients have ranged from Fortune 100 companies to nascent ventures, and he frequently advises businesses in the life sciences, entertainment, transportation, and electronics manufacturing sectors.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips's office in Denver, Jake worked as an associate at an international, multi-practice law firm in New York, where he specialized in intellectual property, employment matters, news and entertainment counseling, and general commercial litigation.

Outside of his law practice, Jake serves as the Chair of the Colorado Board for CureSearch.
