11:30 AM — 1:30 PM EDT

COST: $25 per person

Workplace investigations are both an art and a science, requiring a blend of careful strategy and human connection. From handling sensitive allegations to gathering and assessing evidence, participants in this interactive program will learn step-by-step best practices to uncover the facts while maintaining employee trust. Designed for managers, HR professionals, and legal teams, this training will ensure you're prepared to navigate even the most challenging and sensitive workplace conflicts with confidence and integrity.

*Due to the highly interactive nature of the presentation, participation is limited to the first 20 registrations. Registration is required. Lunch will be provided.
