“SEVERANCE” AND THE MODERN WORKPLACE: LEGAL BOUNDARIES IN A BLURRED REALITY

Event

May 8, 2025

1:00 pm - 2:00 pm EDT

Apple TV’s “Severance” imagines a world where employees undergo a procedure that surgically divides their work and personal selves. While fictional, the show raises provocative and timely questions about workplace boundaries, employee autonomy, surveillance, and employer control — all of which have real-world implications under current labor and employment laws.

Join our labor and employment attorneys for a compelling webinar as they explore modern-day employment law challenges through the lens of the hit show “Severance”, including:

- Work-Life Boundaries: Navigating the legal tensions between employer control and employee autonomy in the age of remote work and digital tracking.
- Surveillance: Understanding emerging legal and ethical concerns surrounding workplace technology, from hiring algorithms in AI to employee monitoring systems.
- Employment Terms: Understanding the latest developments in employment agreements, non-competes, arbitration clauses, and, of course, severance agreements.
