OVERVIEW

Anastasia Zakharova is an associate in Fisher Phillips' San Francisco office who counsels individuals and companies—from startups to multinational corporations—on a wide range of immigration matters, including H-1B and L-1 visas, PERM labor certifications, I-140 petitions, and adjustment of status applications. Known for her strategic approach, cultural sensitivity, and deep understanding of U.S. immigration law, she collaborates closely with HR and global mobility teams to ensure both compliance and efficiency. Her family-based immigration work has included Immigration by marriage, K-1 fiancé visas, and good faith marriage waivers. She has also worked on special situation cases including VAWA, DACA, and Asylum.
