

International Media Outlets Cover the Firm's Launch in Tokyo

News

5.13.25

Asian Business Law Journal, Asian Legal Business, International Employment Lawyer, Law.com, and Law360 cover the launch of Fisher Phillips' Tokyo office. The new location is the firm's second international outpost, following the launch in Mexico in 2023. The Tokyo office will be led by Nan Sato and gives Fisher Phillips a foothold in the region to respond to increasing client demand from American and multinational companies doing business in Japan and from Japanese companies doing business in the Americas.
