Event

Jul 8, 2025

2:00 pm - 2:30 pm EDT

Two coasts. One storm of regulation brewing. Are you ready? Lawmakers in Washington, D.C., and California are talking AI workplace laws, while several other states are racing to regulate how AI impacts hiring, monitoring, and productivity. If you're using – or even thinking about using – AI in your workplace, you can't afford to miss this. Join our Government Relations Insider for a straight-talking, interactive 30-minute rundown of what's happening, what's coming, and how employers can keep pace without getting burned.

What You'll Learn:

- The latest from D.C.: Congress, the White House, and what's real vs. noise
- What California bills you need to monitor this legislative cycle
- Where other states like New York, Colorado, and Texas are headed
- What smart companies are doing now to get ahead of this fast-moving trend
