

Elizabeth Roff

Special Counsel

t: 612.216.2763

Email

Service Focus

- Litigation and Trials
- Counseling and Advice

Overview

With over a decade of courtroom experience, Elizabeth “Liz” Roff has a proven track record of effectively representing employers in workplace-related litigation. Liz defends employers against claims of discrimination, harassment, and whistleblower claims. She also reviews, negotiates, and drafts separation agreements. Her experience includes advising owners, contractors, and manufacturers in a wide variety of construction-related matters.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Liz was Senior Counsel at a regional civil litigation law firm in Minnesota where she advised employers on all aspects of labor and employment law, including employment litigation and conducting investigations for public entities and school districts.

Liz works remotely and is licensed in Minnesota, Wisconsin, and California. You may contact her via email or by phone. Please use our Minneapolis address for mailing purposes only.

Credentials

Education

- J.D., magna cum laude, Mitchell Hamline School of Law
- B.A., University of Minnesota

Bar Admissions

- Minnesota

- Wisconsin

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota

Recognitions

- Minnesota Super Lawyers (2024-2025)
- Minnesota Super Lawyers Rising Star (2020-2023)

Affiliations

Professional Activities

- Member, Minnesota State Bar Association
- Council Member, Construction Law Section of the Minnesota State Bar Association
- Volunteer, Volunteer Lawyers Network

Community Activities

- Coach for Lego Robotics Elementary Team
- High School Mock Trial Judge
- Adjunct Professor for Blended Learning Program at Mitchell Hamline School of Law