

Labor Relations Partner Discusses NLRB's Hold on Elections

News

8.18.25

In an interview with Bloomberg Law, Joshua Nadreau discusses the significant drop in union elections and petitions to the National Labor Relations Board within the first six months of the Trump administration as unions predict unfavorable rulings with broader implications. Josh explains that “Republican administrations are generally not as accommodating to labor’s interests as Democratic ones.”

To read the article visit Bloomberg Law (subscription required).

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Joshua D. Nadreau
Regional Managing Partner and Vice Chair, Labor Relations Group
617.722.0044
Email

Service Focus

Labor Relations

Related Offices

Boston

Portland, ME