Overview

Andrew Suarez is an associate in the firm's Atlanta office who advises and defends employers in various labor and employment-related issues. He represents businesses in litigation involving federal employment laws – including the Fair Labor Standards Act, OSHA regulations, and other workplace protections – and often advocates before administrative agencies.

Andrew is known for his ability to build strong, collaborative relationships with clients. He takes the time to understand their businesses and industries, ensuring they feel supported whether navigating compliance issues, addressing disputes, or mitigating risk. Fluent in Spanish, Andrew also helps employers connect more effectively with diverse workforces.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Andrew was an associate at an Atlanta-based law firm focused on labor, employment, and complex litigation where he worked on a wide range of workplace law matters.
