

Kylene R. Slocum

Associate

Seattle

t: 206.693.5062

f: 206.682.7908

Email

Service Focus

- Litigation and Trials
- Employment Discrimination and Harassment
- Class and Collective Actions

Overview

Kylene Slocum defends employers in various labor and employment matters, including discrimination and harassment claims and wage and hour class actions in federal and state courts. Kylene also advises employers on workplace policy, training presentations, and workplace investigations.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Kylene was an associate at a national, full-service law firm where she focused on labor and employment litigation and employment advice and counseling. Kylene also formerly served as a judicial clerk in Michigan and was primarily responsible for reviewing the grand jury transcript in connection with what is commonly known as the Flint Water Crisis.

During law school, Kylene was a member of the Michigan State University Law Review and Trial Practice Institute. Kylene is also a former collegiate athlete.

Credentials

Education

- J.D., 2021, Michigan State University College of Law
- B.A., 2017, cum laude, Albion College

Bar Admissions

- Washington

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Washington
- U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington
- Washington Court of Appeals
- Washington Supreme Court

Affiliations

Professional Activities

- Planning Committee Member for the Pacific Coast Labor & Employment Law Conference (PCLELC)