WAGE AND HOUR WEDNESDAYS: THE FOUR-DAY FUTURE: COMPRESSING THE WORKWEEK WITHOUT COMPROMISING COMPLIANCE

Event

Dec 10, 2025

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm EST

As organizations look to boost retention, engagement, and work-life balance, more HR teams are piloting 4-day weeks, 32-hour schedules, and innovative 9/80 designs that reshape how and when work gets done. But wage and hour rules haven't evolved. And the future of work still needs a timecard.

In this practical session built for HR leaders and in-house counsel, we'll explore how to offer flexibility in the workweek without triggering unplanned overtime, daily wage violations, break-rule penalties, or multi-state chaos. We will provide realistic examples, scheduling visuals, and a compliance-first mindset. And you will walk away with strategies in place for a compressed workweek that maintains compliance with wage and hour laws.
