MANUFACTURING FOCUS: LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT DEVELOPMENTS, ONE YEAR INTO THE 2ND TRUMP ADMINISTRATION

Event

Jan 22, 2026

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm EST

Join the Manufacturing Industry Group of Fisher Phillips for a timely discussion on what the second Trump administration means for labor and employment in the manufacturing sector. With new leadership in Washington, the pendulum is already shifting across virtually every aspect of labor and employment law, not just activity at the National Labor Relations Board.

This program will walk through key developments in policy, regulation, and legislation and explain how they are likely to reshape the employer-employee relationship for manufacturers. We will also explore how the rapid proliferation of AI intersects with DEI initiatives, EEOC priorities, immigration compliance, wage and hour requirements, and workplace safety obligations.

Attendees will leave with a clearer view of the changes most likely to impact their operations and practical steps to prepare for the road ahead.
