Pro se plaintiffs armed with ChatGPT are generating professional-looking pleadings, driving up defense costs and forcing employers to rethink their litigation budgets and settlement strategies. What used to be a manageable nuisance case can now result in massive filing blizzards, inflated settlement demands, and citation-checking nightmares – all because AI tools have leveled the playing field in unexpected ways.

Join us for this eye-opening 30-minute FP AI Forum as Rich Meneghello sits down with FP litigators Terri Stewart and Kathie Caminiti to discuss what's really happening in employment litigation and what in-house counsel and HR leaders can do about it. Whether you're seeing AI-generated filings already or preparing for what's coming, this session will give you practical tools to manage costs, adjust your litigation strategy, and navigate the new reality of the ChatGPT plaintiff.
