OVERVIEW

Savanna Corr defends employers throughout California in labor and employment matters, including class actions, PAGA representative actions, wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and wage and hour disputes. Additionally, she advises on day-to-day employment law compliance and preparing employee handbooks.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Savanna was an associate at a full-service regional firm, where she worked on a wide array of employment litigation matters, including class and PAGA actions and claims of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. She also externed for the Honorable Ronald H. Sargis at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of California.

Savanna was a four-year Division 1 student-athlete on the California State University, Sacramento softball team and served as President of the Student-Athlete Advisory Council. She earned numerous academic and athletic honors, including multiple Big Sky All-Academic selections, the Big Sky Scholar-Athlete Award, NFCA All-America Scholar-Athlete recognition, Big Sky Pitcher of the Year in 2019, and a nomination for NCAA Woman of the Year.
