

JEAN CLEVELAND

General Counsel

Chicago

813-769-7459

OVERVIEW

Jean Cleveland is a member of Fisher Phillips' Executive Leadership Team and serves as the firm's General Counsel. In this role, Jean advises the firm's Management Committee and firm attorneys on a broad range of matters involving legal ethics, professional responsibility, risk management, conflicts of interest, and compliance across the firm's offices and practice areas. Jean works closely with the Management Committee and firm leadership to develop and implement firm-wide policies and procedures addressing risk mitigation, loss prevention, and governance. She plays a central role in supporting the firm's strategic objectives while safeguarding its professional and ethical standards.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Jean served as Assistant General Counsel at an AmLaw 50 firm. Earlier in her career, she represented lawyers, law firms, hospitals, and physicians in professional liability litigation and general litigation matters.

Education

- Marquette University Law School
- University of Tampa, B.A. Business Administration and Management

Bar Admissions

- Illinois

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois

Member

- American Bar Association

Professional education certificates

- The University of Chicago Booth School of Business, Business Leadership for Lawyers

Affiliations

American Bar Association