DAVE WALTON ANALYZES PRESIDENT TRUMP'S NEW AI POLICY FRAMEWORK WITH BLOOMBERG LAW

News
Mar 20, 2026

In an interview with Bloomberg Law, David Walton shared his insight on the Trump administration's new AI policy framework and its potential preemption strategy. Dave explained that "the most likely preemptions aren't related to employment law or the ways businesses use AI-powered applications," noting that "the administration is primarily concerned with preventing restrictions on the developers of AI foundational models for the sake of national security and economic competitiveness."
