PARTNER DISCUSSES THE IMPACT OF AI-POWERED PLAINTIFFS

News

Apr 1, 2026

In an interview with Forbes, Kristin R.B. White discussed the rise of AI-powered plaintiffs and the impact it's having on the legal industry. She noted that "what once required hours of legal work can now be approximated in minutes at a fraction of the usual cost," but cautioned that the technology enables people to file lawsuits "with a level of confidence AI gives them, without the legal judgment that would normally filter out weak or unwinnable claims."
