THE CLOCK IS TICKING: PREPARING YOUR BUSINESS FOR NEW FEDERAL CYBER REPORTING REGULATIONS

Event

Apr 30, 2026

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm EDT

A new federal cybersecurity reporting mandate is coming. Is your organization ready? Effective in May, the Cyber Incident Reporting for Critical Infrastructure Act (CIRCIA) will impact over 300,000 entities in key sectors, such as healthcare and public health, financial services, information technology, communications, transportation, energy, and the defense industry. You may be surprised to learn how many organizations CIRCIA touches. If you operate in one of these sectors, the time to prepare is now.

Join Dan Pepper, Chair of the Fisher Phillips Data Protection and Cybersecurity team, as he breaks down what every employer needs to know: how to determine if your organization is covered, why your HR vendor contracts may create hidden compliance risks, and how to navigate the complex web of overlapping regulations that make cyber incidents especially challenging to manage. You'll walk away with actionable insights to assess your readiness and protect your organization before the final rule takes effect.
