PARTNER DISCUSSES AI AND CYBERSECURITY CHALLENGES FOR SOUTH CAROLINA ATTORNEYS IN SC BIZ

News
May 7, 2026

In an interview with SC Biz, Sheila Abron shared her thoughts on the AI and cybersecurity challenges reshaping legal practice in South Carolina in 2026. Sheila cautioned that "AI tools that may increase efficiency may also raise legal questions around confidentiality, privilege, accuracy and professional responsibility." On cybersecurity, Sheila noted that "with expanding privacy laws and increasing cyber threats, organizations are navigating a patchwork of regulations while trying to protect sensitive data," and that "legal teams are playing a central role in incident response planning and risk mitigation".
