PITTSBURGH PARTNER SHARES DISCUSSES THE INTERSECTION OF AI AND COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

News
May 14, 2026

In an interview with Law360, Raeann Burgo discusses the growing intersection of the use of artificial intelligence and collective bargaining. The AFL-CIO recently made AI a focal point in public messaging and Raeann explains how employers and unions are navigating the rapid change in the workplace and how it impacts the workforce, including demands from unions.
