

NICKOLAUS CABRERA

Associate

Portland, OR

503.205.8063

503.242.4263

Service Focus

- Counseling and Advice
- Immigration
- Litigation and Trials

OVERVIEW

Nickolaus Cabrera is an associate in the firm's Portland, Oregon office. Nick works on complex commercial employment disputes and provides counsel and advice on federal and Oregon state law to employers. Nick also assists both corporate and individual clients with processing employment-based visas including H-1B, L-1, and O-1 petitions, along with permanent residence applications.

Nick earned his J.D. with distinction from The University of Iowa College of Law, where he served as Co-President of the Iowa Student Bar Association, Writing Tutor at the Iowa Law Writing Center, student writer on the Iowa Law Review, student representative to the Iowa Law School Foundation, and social chair of the Hispanic Latino Law Student Association.

During law school, Nick interned at the United States District Court for the District of Wyoming for Judge Kelly Rankin. Nick earned several academic awards while at Iowa Law for highest course grades including Legal Writing and Analysis, Civil Procedure, Critical Race Theory, Human Rights, and Civil Discourse.

Credentials

Education

- University of Iowa College of Law, J.D., with Distinction
- University of Virginia, B.A.

Bar Admissions

- Oregon

INSIGHTS

Insights

Jun 4, 2026

New EU Equal Pay Rules Are Coming Soon: A 7-Step Plan for Employers