PRIVACY AND CYBER CO-CHAIR TESTIFIES ON SURGE OF CIPA LAWSUIT TARGETING CALIFORNIA BUSINESSES

News
Jul 2, 2026

In an article published by Beachcomber, Usama Kahf was cited for his testimony in support of SB 690 during a hearing before the California Assembly Standing Committee on Privacy and Consumer Protection on the growing wave of lawsuits targeting businesses under the California Invasion of Privacy Act (CIPA). Usama explained that Fisher Phillips alone has handled approximately 250 of these matters, and he argued that the lawsuits are not about protecting consumers as no individual suffers actual harm from the data collection at issue.
