OVERVIEW

Stephanie Alvarez Salgado is an associate in Fisher Phillips' Employee Defection and Trade Secrets (EDTS) and Privacy and Cyber practice groups. She brings a practical, business-minded approach to helping clients navigate the fast-evolving legal landscape surrounding data, privacy, and emerging technology.

Stephanie regularly litigates trade secret and data misappropriation disputes and defends companies facing privacy-related claims under statutes such as the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) and the California Invasion of Privacy Act (CIPA). She also counsels clients on privacy compliance, helping them proactively manage data risk before disputes arise.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Stephanie practiced at a boutique intellectual property litigation firm serving tech and video game clients. She began her career as a commercial litigation associate in the Los Angeles office of an Am Law 100 firm.
