19TH ANNUAL EMPLOYMENT LAW SYMPOSIUM

Event

Jul 30, 2026

8:00 am - 4:30 pm EDT

Cost: Members: $175 | Non-Members: $205

The workplace doesn't stop evolving – and neither do we.

Join Fisher Phillips and Morris County SHRM for the 19th Annual Employment Law Symposium: a full day of focused, expert-led sessions built for HR professionals who need more than theory. You'll leave with practical tools and clear guidance you can put to work in your organization right away.

In 2026, employers are managing workforce reductions under intense scrutiny, navigating aggressive immigration enforcement, handling complex disability accommodations, and defending workplace investigations – often all at once. Our attorneys work on these issues every day, and they'll bring that real-world experience to every session. Their insight is sharp, current, and built around what employers actually face.

The Symposium will cover a range of timely topics, including:

- RIF readiness – from workforce reduction planning to post-layoff risk management
- Immigration law updates and worksite enforcement preparedness
- OSHA whistleblower retaliation claims, the process, and best practices
