

DAILY REPORT COVERS FISHER PHILLIPS' STRATEGIC ST. LOUIS EXPANSION

News

Jul 29, 2026

In a feature about law firm growth in Missouri, Daily Report covers the firm's expansion into the St. Louis market. Nelson Williams, joining Fisher Phillips as Regional Managing Partner in St. Louis, notes the decision was driven by client demand and the city's standing as one of the "key job centers of the Midwest."

Nelson noted that clients with operations and cases in St. Louis had been asking the firm to establish a presence "for some time now," and that the firm is "being really strategic about how and where it grows". "I have received [and] continue to receive calls from prospective clients with whom I've never spoken just in the two weeks since joining the firm. That really speaks to the wisdom behind the decision, and that there is clearly a need for additional representation here," Nelson said. "I'm happy that I'm in the position where we can kind of meet the moment."
