

Insights, News & Events

JOHN SURMA DISCUSSES OSHA MENTAL ILLNESS RECORDING RULING

News
Aug 12, 2026

In an interview with Safety+Health Magazine, John Surma discussed a 5th Circuit ruling that OSHA's illness-recording requirement does not apply to mental illnesses. John recommended that employers "remain aware of state-related obligations that may still require you to record such illnesses."

To read the article visit Safety+Health Magazine.

Related People

John D. Surma

Partner

713.292.5633

Service Focus

Workplace Safety

Related Offices

Dallas

Houston