- Employment Discrimination and Harassment
- Litigation and Trials

OVERVIEW

Christina Chen defends businesses and employers in a broad range of labor and employment disputes, including wage and hour litigation, discrimination, retaliation, wrongful termination, unfair competition, and breach of contract claims. Drawing on more than a decade of experience, Christina has managed complex matters from pre-litigation counseling through trial and guided clients through proceedings before agencies such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing, San Francisco Office of Labor Standards Enforcement, and the California Department of Labor Standards Enforcement.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Christina was an associate at a full-service law firm in San Francisco, where she managed a full spectrum of employment and general litigation matters for employers across industries. Her experience defending clients in litigation and navigating complex regulatory proceedings provides her with the insight and agility to provide effective, business-focused solutions.

Christina works remotely and is licensed in California.
