OVERVIEW

Karly Bowen defends businesses and educational institutions in workplace and campus-based employment disputes, handling matters involving discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wrongful termination, and regulatory compliance under Title VII, ADA, FMLA, and related statutes. Karly delivers practical guidance to businesses and education institutions navigating internal investigations, student and employee claims, and policy development.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Karly served as Commonwealth Campus Staff Attorney for a major public university system, where she provided direct legal services to students and campus administrators, led outreach and education initiatives, and collaborated with institutional leaders to expand access to resources and resolve recurring employment and student-related legal issues.

Karly is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts. She is not admitted in Florida, but she is supervised by a licensed member of the Florida bar.*
