

Insights, News & Events

USAMA KAHF ANALYZES RECENT CIPA DECISIONS ON CLES YOU ACTUALLY WANT TO HEAR PODCAST

News
Sep 2, 2026

In an episode of CLEs You Actually Want to Hear presented by the Beverly Hills Bar Association, Partner Usama Kahf examined recent decisions under the California Invasion of Privacy Act (CIPA) related to cookie and pixel tracking litigation. Topics include the Article III standing framework courts are applying to behavioral metadata, the distinction between clickwrap and browsewrap consent, the pen register theory that continues to survive dismissal, and why financial and health data cases carry materially higher risk than general consumer browsing claims.

Click here to listen to the full episode.

Related People

Usama Kahf, CIPP/US
Partner

949.798.2118

Service Focus

Consumer Privacy Team

Digital Wiretapping Litigation

Litigation and Trials

Privacy and Cyber