What happens when a company using AI to help process and pay bills falls victim to an AI-enhanced phishing attack that compromises the CFO's email and redirects a $250,000 vendor payment? Join Fisher Phillips, Koru, Windes, Ally, UKG, and Human Interest for an interactive executive tabletop exercise where participants will navigate the financial, legal, operational, and reputational decisions that follow. The experience will reveal how prepared your leadership team is to respond when every minute, and every decision, matters.

This event is co-hosted by Fisher Phillips, Ally, Human Interest, Koru, and Windes. By registering, attendees acknowledge that the RSVP list and registration information will be shared with all organizers, and that each organizer may follow up directly.
