Employer Guide to Q4 2026 Compliance Deadlines for Retirement and Welfare Benefit Plans

The fourth quarter is an important time for employers and plan administrators to take stock of their employee benefit plans and prepare for the year ahead. In addition to recurring year-end administrative tasks, Q4 brings a wave of compliance deadlines for employer-sponsored retirement and health plans. Missing a deadline can result in additional administrative work, potential penalties, and other negative consequences (such as losing a plan's safe harbor status) – so we created this Employer Guide to help you keep track of it all.
