OVERVIEW

Daniel Zumpano is a partner at Fisher Phillips Zumpano, the Miami office of Fisher & Phillips LLP, and represents domestic and multinational businesses in complex disputes, with particular experience in employee defection, trade secret matters, contract disputes, business torts, and partnership conflicts. He advises clients on litigation strategy with an eye toward protecting both their legal interests and the ongoing operation of their businesses.

Daniel has significant experience handling disputes involving business owners, internal conflicts, and corporate dissolutions. He also represents clients in arbitrations and advises companies before disputes arise, drawing on his litigation experience to help identify risk and shape practical strategies.

His practice includes international and multijurisdictional disputes involving clients and legal issues connected to Mexico, Costa Rica, Bolivia, and other Latin American jurisdictions.

Daniel also advises clients in the entertainment and sports industries, including celebrities and professional athletes, on contractual, investment, tort, and commercial matters.

Daniel Zumpano is also a partner in the law firm of Zumpano Castro which operates independently from Fisher Phillips.*
