Service Focus

- Employment Discrimination and Harassment
- Litigation and Trials

OVERVIEW

Janna Joassainte defends businesses in labor and employment disputes across a range of industries, including financial services, technology, insurance, and hospitality. Drawing on years of experience litigating cases involving discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination, and reductions in force, Janna guides clients through single-plaintiff actions, class and collective proceedings, and arbitration forums such as JAMS and AAA.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Janna was an associate at an international Am Law firm, where she litigated complex labor and employment matters, coordinated mass arbitration defense for national employers, led internal investigations into workplace practices, and worked on matters pertaining to commercial and securities law.
