OVERVIEW

Giselle Ortiz Del Amo is a partner at Fisher Phillips Zumpano, the Miami Office of Fisher & Phillips LLP, and advises employers and professional employer organizations (PEOs) on a broad range of labor and employment matters. She counsels clients on day-to-day workplace issues and helps develop employment policies, agreements, and practices designed to address business needs and manage legal risk.

Giselle has extensive experience drafting and negotiating employment-related agreements, including employment, confidentiality, non-disclosure, non-solicitation, and non-competition agreements. She provides practical, business-focused guidance on issues arising throughout the employment relationship, tailoring her advice to each client's operations and objectives.

Her practice also includes corporate and transactional matters involving entity formation and structuring, acquisitions, corporate reorganizations, and shareholder and operating agreements. This experience gives Giselle a broader perspective on the business and operational considerations that can shape employment decisions.

 Giselle Ortiz Del Amo is also Of Counsel in the law firm of Zumpano Castro which operates independently from Fisher Phillips.*
