OVERVIEW

Antonio Castro is Of Counsel at Fisher Phillips Zumpano, the Miami Office of Fisher & Phillips LLP, and a seasoned trial lawyer who represents businesses and individuals in complex commercial litigation, arbitration, and appeals. With more than 30 years of experience, he handles disputes involving contracts, business torts, partnership conflicts and business dissolutions, as well as the enforcement of non-competition, non-solicitation, and confidentiality agreements. His experience also includes defending employers in employment litigation.

Tony brings substantial courtroom experience to his practice, including more than 40 jury trials as a prosecutor. He advises clients throughout the life cycle of significant disputes, from early case assessment and strategy through discovery, trial, and appeal, with a focus on understanding the facts and developing an effective path toward resolution.

Fluent in Spanish, Tony handles cross-border disputes involving parties and issues throughout Central and South America and the Caribbean, including matters presenting forum non conveniens issues.

Before entering private practice, Tony served as an Assistant State Attorney in Miami-Dade County, where he tried cases and taught litigation skills to junior prosecutors. He subsequently practiced at a national litigation firm, representing major companies in complex commercial litigation and mass tort matters.

 Antonio Castro is also a partner in the law firm of Zumpano Castro which operates independently from Fisher Phillips.*
