OVERVIEW

Stephen R. Machin is Of Counsel at Fisher Phillips Zumpano, the Miami Office of Fisher & Phillips, and represents insurers, employers, and other businesses in insurance and commercial litigation. He handles complex disputes through all stages of litigation, developing strategies based on each client's particular factual circumstances, legal needs, and broader objectives.

Stephen's experience includes representing insurance carriers, insureds, and employers in a range of matters involving insurance, commercial, maritime, and liability disputes. His work across these areas gives him experience navigating complex factual records and legal issues while helping clients evaluate risk and determine an appropriate path forward.

His earlier legal experience included internships with the U.S. Coast Guard's Seventh District Legal Office and a judicial internship with the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

 Stephen Machin is also a partner in the law firm of Zumpano Castro which operates independently from Fisher Phillips.*
